28 February 2012 PE 483.711v01-00

The minutes were approved.

3. Chair's announcements

Chair welcomed the positive outcome of the Conference of EU Speakers held in Warsaw previous week regarding the organisation of interparliamentary scrutiny of CFSP.

At the conference the EU Speakers reached an agreement on the establishment of a Conference for the interparliamentary scrutiny of CFSP. This Conference would have the following composition:

· 6 representatives from each national parliament of the EU,

· 16 representatives from the European Parliament, and

· 4 representatives with observer status from each candidate country parliament as well as 4 parliamentary representatives from each European Member State of the NATO.

The conference would be presided by the parliament of the country holding the presidency and the European Parliament.

The Conference secretariat would be provided by the national parliament of the Member State holding the Presidency in close cooperation with the European Parliament and the previous and the next Presidency.

It was also agreed that the operating Framework of the Interparliamentary Conference would be revised in two years' time.
