13. Coordinators' meeting

The coordinators met (in camera). Their decisions are recorded under point 16 of these minutes.

The meeting opened at 15.10 on Tuesday 19 June 2012, with Doris Pack (Chair) in the chair.

14. "Europe for Citizens"

The Chair recalled that the Commission proposal had raised both political and legal concerns. The opinion of the legal service of the Parliament, subsequently confirmed by an opinion of the JURI committee, was that a dual legal base with codecision would be most appropriate for this proposal, as it contained two strands of equal importance: citizenship (based on Article 352 & APP) and historical remembrance (which should be based on Article 167 & COD). However, the Council and Commission were adamant that a single legal base (Article 352) & the consent procedure were correct.

The Chair noted that the coordinators had decided at an earlier meeting to consult widely within their groups before taking a decision about how to proceed.

The Chair reported that the coordinators had decided to reject the Draft Regulation if the Council & Commission maintain the consent procedure for this dossier & failed to take account of the EP's proposed amendments. They also had decided to draw up a codecision first reading report, taking account of what is known to be the Council position (Council reached a partial general approach on this dossier on 11 May): the Parliament would then expect an informal trilogue to follow. This strategy was confirmed by an indicative vote, with EPP, S&D, ALDE, GREENS & EFD in favour, & ECR abstaining (there was no GUE/NGL Member present to vote).

15. Exchange of views with Mrs Androulla Vassiliou (Commissioner for Education, Culture, Multilingualism and Youth)

The Commissioner spoke at length about the proposal for an 'Erasmus for All' programme. She argued that the streamlining of the programme would not cause sectors such as youth to lose their distinct identities. She defended a flexible budget breakdown, the proposed programme title, & the limited number of named beneficiary organisations. Members were generally critical on all of these points, the Chair expressing her disappointment at the Commission's reluctance to move an inch from its proposal. The Commissioner also defended the original Commission proposal for a Creative Europe programme, merging the current Culture & Media programmes. She gave assurances that a distinct media strand would continue under the new programme & that, in the event of a substantial cut in the proposed budget, she would support cutting the proposed bank loan guarantee scheme for cultural industries projects rather than the culture or media strands.

Speakers: Piotr Borys, Silvia Costa, Santiago Fisas Ayxela, Petra Kammerevert, Katarína Neveďalová, Doris Pack, Chrysoula Paliadeli, Marie-Thérèse Sanchez-Schmid, Marco Scurria, Hannu Takkula, Helga Trüpel, Androulla Vassiliou (European Commission).

16. Exchange of views with representatives of Euronews

Mr Michaël Peters, Chief Executive Officer of EURONEWS gave a presentation about Euronews arguing that it is the only truly European broadcaster reaching sizeable audiences in Europe and beyond: this justified the 30% of its budget which was provided by the EU.

Speakers: Piotr Borys, Morten Løkkegaard, Doris Pack, Helga Trüpel, Michaël Peters (Euronews).
