Akeksandr Lunev, Rector, Astrakhan State University
Has been Rector since 2000. Full Professor of economics, author of numerous papers (articles, monographs and textbooks) on economics of education and regional innovation clusters. Full Member of the Academy of social sciences and Corresponding Member of several other academies. Head of the UNESCO Chair "Learning Society and Social Sustainable Development" at Astrakhan State University. Head of the Regional State Academic Dissertation Council in information and management systems, math modeling, social and economic systems.
Head of the Council of Rectors of Astrakhan region universities and educational institutions. Awardee of the Russian Federation government medal "For labor merits". Before he became Rector, he was Director of Department of Economy and Vice-Rector for academic affairs.