4. Statement by the President

The President made a statement on the entry into force of the General Data Protection Regulation. While highlighting the central role Parliament had played in the adoption of this Regulation and thanking the rapporteur Jan Philipp Albrecht, the President stressed the fact that under the new rules it would be possible to prevent the personal data of millions of citizens being misused in future to influence election results.

6. Composition of Parliament

The French authorities had given notice of the election of Karine Gloanec Maurin to replace Jean-Paul Denanot as Member of Parliament with effect from 11 June 2018.

Parliament took note of her election.

Under Rule 3(2), until such time as her credentials had been verified or a ruling had been given on any dispute, and provided that she had previously made a written declaration stating that she did not hold any office incompatible with that of a Member of the European Parliament, Karine Gloanec Maurin would take her seat in Parliament and on its bodies and would enjoy all the rights attaching thereto.

The JURI Committee, as the committee concerned, had notified the President that following the Bucharest Court of Appeal's decision to reject an appeal brought for a full annulment of a decision by the Bucharest Court in a civil case in favour of Victor Boștinăru, the JURI Committee had had to close the immunity procedure, there being no further need for it. The procedure to uphold immunity had therefore been closed.
