3. Statement by the President

The President made a statement on various tragedies that had struck European countries over the past summer, causing many casualties, including the fires in Greece and Sweden, the collapse of the Morandi bridge in Genoa and the flooding at the Raganello Gorge in the region of Calabria. He expressed Parliament's condolences to the families of the victims.

However, because Giovanni Micciché had not resigned from a post as an elected official in Italy incompatible under national law with that of Member of the European Parliament within the prescribed period, the authorities subsequently notified Parliament that his mandate at the European Parliament had been revoked with effect from 20 August 2018. At the same time, they gave notice that Innocenzo Leontini had been elected to the European Parliament of to replace Giovanni Micciché with effect from 20 August 2018.

Parliament noted their election.

Under Rule 3(2), until such time as their credentials had been verified or a ruling had been given on any dispute, and provided that they had previously made a written declaration stating that they did not hold any office incompatible with that of Member of the European Parliament, Igor Gräzin et Innocenzo Leontini would take their seats in Parliament and on its bodies and would enjoy all the rights attaching thereto.
