Subject: PANA Public Hearing on “Tax-Planning, Do Celebrities and Companies Breach EU Law?”

Dear Mr Mendes,

As you may be aware, the European Parliament has set up an Inquiry Committee on Tax Evasion, Tax Avoidance and Money Laundering (PANA) following the revelations known as the "Panama Papers".

You can find more information on this committee, including the committee's mandate, here: <http://www.europarl.europa.eu/committees/en/pana/home.html>. On this website you can also find the draft report as well as draft recommendations elaborated by the co-rapporteurs of our Committee.

In the framework of its work, the PANA Committee is conducting a series of hearings with of EU institutions, EU Member States, business representatives, stakeholders, academia and key representatives. The aim of these hearings is to hold constructive and forward-looking dialogues with relevant key players on ways to tackle effectively the topics of relevance to our Committee.

The Members of our Committee have decided that they wish to invite you as a speaker in our upcoming hearing on “Tax-Planning, Do Celebrities and Companies Breach EU Law?”, either in person or via videoconference.

We therefore hereby have the pleasure to invite you to a PANA Committee hearing that is going to take place on 26 September 2017 from 09:00 - 12.30 in the European Parliament premises in Brussels. The panel for which you will be kindly invited will take place from 9.00 -11.00.

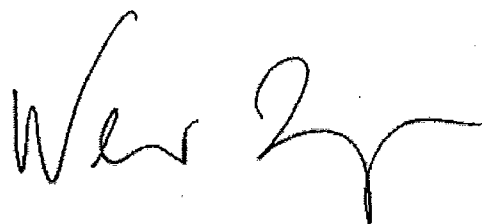

The purpose of this hearing is to get a better insight in the international football world, the role of intermediaries and possible breaches of EU law with regard to anti-money laundering and taxation.

You will be invited to make an initial statement of a maximum of 5 minutes. After the opening statements by the panellists there will be a session of questions and answers with the Committee Members.

Should you need any additional information or should you have any queries on this hearing, please do not hesitate to contact Ms Anje Bultena (tel.: +32 2 28 42532, anje.bultena@europarl.europa.eu) for content-related questions or the Secretariat of the PANA Committee (pana-secretariat@ep.europa.eu).

In the hope that you will be in a position to accept this invitation, we look forward to your reply.

Yours sincerely,

The purpose of the panel is to learn about the tax planning strategies of multinationals in particular with regard to the use of favourable tax jurisdictions and to get a better idea of its context. Also we would be interested in having your views on the EU legislation in place in this area and possible loopholes you signal. The PANA Committee is looking forward to your remarks in particular in regard to the tax strategy of BASF.

You will be invited to make an initial statement of a maximum of 5 minutes. After the opening statements by the panellists there will be a session of questions and answers with the Committee Members.

Should you need any additional information or should you have any queries on this hearing, please do not hesitate to contact Ms Anje Bultena (tel.: +32 2 28 42532, anje.bultena@europarl.europa.eu) for content-related questions or the Secretariat of the PANA Committee (pana-secretariat@ep.europa.eu).
