

Role and impact of the European Parliament in the 2014-19 legislative term: Stock-taking in the final stretch

Wednesday, 23 January, 2019 | 13:30 - 15:30 hours
Library Reading Room, Altiero Spinelli Building (ASP 05D), EP

PROGRAMME

- 13:30 Welcome by Anthony TEASDALE, Director-General, EPRS
- 13:35 Introductory remarks by Mairead McGUINNESS, First Vice-President of the European Parliament, responsible for relations with national parliaments, conciliation and Article 17 dialogue
- 13:45 The 8th Parliamentary term so far: Stock-taking, dynamics and trends
- Desmond DINAN, Professor at George Mason University, Virginia (Jean Monnet Chair)
 - Sarah BLAU, Head of the Legislative Affairs Unit, DG IPOL
 - Charles de MARCILLY, Adviser, European Political Strategy Centre (EPSC)
- Moderation: Raquel DE VICENTE, Director for Legislative and Committee Coordination, DG IPOL
- Questions and contributions from the floor
- 14:30 Forging the European interest: Building majorities and reaching agreement on two major files
- Pilar DEL CASTILLO, Member of the European Parliament; Rapporteur on the review on the Electronic Communications Code
 - José BLANCO LÓPEZ, Member of the European Parliament; Rapporteur on the review of the Renewable Energy Directive
 - Alex WILSON, Policy Analyst, EPRS
- Moderation: Etienne BASSOT, Director, Members' Research Service, EPRS
- Questions and contributions from the floor
- 15:20 Concluding remarks

Please be advised that photographs, audio and/or video may be taken at this event and may be used on EPRS online platforms, publications and promotional material.