by Giusto Catania, on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

Report

A6-0164/2005

Rosa Díez González

EU action plan against terrorism

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 1, letter n)

- n) that the fight against terrorism be seen as one of the priorities of the Union and a (deletion) part of its external action under the European Security Strategy, and that terrorism, and more specifically terrorism by radical groups that claim to defend Islam, especially if taken together with the threat of proliferation of WMDs, should be seen as one of the main problems that European citizens face, and as a threat to democracy, the rule of law, the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights and the UN Charter;

Rosa Díez González

EU action plan against terrorism

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 1, letter n)

- n) that the fight against terrorism be seen as a priority of the Union and a key part of its external action under the European Security Strategy, and that terrorism, and more specifically terrorism by radical groups that claim to defend Islam, (deletion) should be seen as the main problem that European citizens face, and as a threat to democracy, the rule of law, the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights and the UN Charter; however, it cannot be combated in accordance with the theory of preventive warfare, which used WMD as a pretext for bombing civilian populations and committing human rights violations (as in Abu Ghreib prison);

by Giusto Catania, on behalf of the GUE/NGL Group

Report

Rosa Díez González

EU action plan against terrorism

A6-0164/2005

Motion for a resolution

Recital J

- J. whereas the best way of fighting terrorism and combating fundamentalism and intolerance is by promoting human rights; whereas action needs to be taken on the social environment which legitimises terrorist acts and on the actions which justify them; whereas the use of or incitement to violence as a method of resolving political, economic, social or any other conflicts must be condemned, and educational actions must be promoted in favour of non-violence,
