Amendment 55

Article 14, paragraph 3 a (new)

3a. The funding procedure shall be as short as possible and organisations will be informed of the result as quickly as possible. The Commission shall ensure that no more than four months elapses between official receipt of an application by an organisation and the arrival of the first payment in the beneficiary's account in the event that the application is approved. This does not apply to Action 4.1 and 4.2 of the programme.

Amendment 58

Annex, Action 5, point 5.1 a (new)

5.1a. European Youth Week

In this context European Youth Week becomes a regular and permanent event as a set part of European youth policy. A team of young people should participate in the planning and running of the activities so as to place participation of young people at the heart of the week.

The following activities should take place on a centralised and decentralised basis as part of European Youth Week:

- information on the work of the European institutions;

- activities enabling young people to inform MEPs of their concerns;

- a prize-giving for the best youth projects promoted by the Youth programme.
