Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment by Parliament

Amendment 93
Article 10

Member States shall ensure that providers of publicly available electronic communication services or of a public communication network are reimbursed for demonstrated additional costs they have incurred in order to comply with obligations imposed on them as a consequence of this Directive.

Member States shall ensure that providers of publicly available electronic communication services or of a public communication network are reimbursed for demonstrated additional investment and operating costs they have incurred in order to comply with obligations imposed on them as a consequence of this Directive, including the demonstrated additional costs of data protection, and any future amendments hereto. The reimbursement shall include demonstrated costs arising from making the retained data available to competent authorities.
