Social protection and inclusion

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 3

3. Notes that, despite the important structural improvements in the EU labour markets over the last decade, EU employment and participation levels remain insufficient and unemployment remains high in a number of Member States, especially amongst certain categories of people, such as the young, older workers, women, and people with specific disadvantages; notes also that labour market exclusion has a national but also a local and regional dimension, which demonstrates that unemployment cannot be tackled or the necessary 'jobs with rights' created by means of greater labour flexibility;

Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 10

10. Calls on the Member States to exchange best practice to prevent early departure from education, raise the level of education, especially in languages and new technologies, facilitate the transition from school to work, increase access to education and training for disadvantaged groups, including less skilled and older workers, and lay the ground for access to lifelong learning for all; stresses that these strategies should involve all the stakeholders concerned, including the social partners, but also the civil society and learning providers, while reserving a key role for the state in guaranteeing high-quality public education;
