Paragraph 1 shall apply mutatis mutandis pending the entry into force of the arrangement¹ whereby a number of additional seats in Parliament are allocated to certain Member States until the end of the seventh parliamentary term. The Member States concerned shall be invited to designate as observers those candidates who would have been elected had the additional seats already been allocated at the time of the preceding European elections.

¹ Pursuant to the conclusions of the European Council of 11 and 12 December 2008.

Amendment 2

Parliament's Rules of Procedure Rule 34

Present text

Rule 34

Examination of respect for fundamental rights, the principles of subsidiarity and proportionality, the rule of law, and financial implications

During the examination of a legislative proposal, Parliament shall pay particular attention to respect for fundamental rights and in particular that the legislative act is in conformity with the European Union Charter of Fundamental Rights, the principles of subsidiarity and proportionality and the rule of law. In addition, where a proposal has financial implications, Parliament shall establish whether sufficient financial resources are provided.

Amendment

Rule 34

Respect for the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union

1. Parliament shall in all its activities fully respect fundamental rights as laid down in the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union.

Parliament shall also fully respect the rights and principles enshrined in Article 2 and in Article 6(2) and (3) of the Treaty on European Union.

2. Where the committee responsible, a political group or at least forty Members are of the opinion that a proposal for a legislative act or parts of it do not comply with rights enshrined in the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union, the matter shall, at their request, be referred to the committee responsible for the interpretation of the Charter of Fundamental Rights. The opinion of that committee shall be annexed to the report of the committee responsible.

(See amendments to Rule 36 – paragraph -1 (new), and to Rule 36 a (new))

Amendment

Rule 36a

Examination of respect for the principles of subsidiarity and proportionality

1. During the examination of a proposal for a legislative act, Parliament shall pay particular attention to respect for the principles of subsidiarity and proportionality. Except in the cases of urgency referred to in Article 4 of the Protocol on the role of national Parliaments in the European Union, Parliament shall not conclude its first reading before the expiry of the deadline of eight weeks laid down in Article 6 of the Protocol on the application of the principles of subsidiarity and proportionality.

2. The committee responsible for respect of the principle of subsidiarity may decide to make recommendations for the attention of the committee responsible in respect of any proposal for a legislative act.

3. If a national Parliament sends the President a reasoned opinion in accordance with Article 3 of the Protocol on the role of national Parliaments in the European Union and Article 6 of the Protocol on the application of the principles of subsidiarity and proportionality, that document shall be referred to the committee responsible and forwarded for information to the committee responsible for respect of the principle of subsidiarity. When Parliament receives a reasoned opinion after the committee responsible has adopted its report, it shall be distributed to all Members prior to the vote as a session document. The chair of the committee responsible may request that the matter be referred back to the committee.

4. Where reasoned opinions on the non-compliance of a draft legislative act with the principle of subsidiarity represent at least one third of all the votes allocated to the national Parliaments or a quarter in the case of a draft legislative act submitted on the basis of Article 76 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, Parliament shall not take a decision until the author of the proposal has stated how it intends to proceed.

5. Where, under the ordinary legislative procedure, reasoned opinions on the non-compliance of a proposal for a legislative act with the principle of subsidiarity represent at least a simple majority of the votes allocated to the national Parliaments, the committee responsible, having considered the reasoned opinions submitted by the national Parliaments and the Commission, and having heard the views of the committee responsible for respect of the principle of subsidiarity, may recommend to Parliament that it reject the proposal on the grounds of infringement of the principle of subsidiarity. Such a recommendation may also be tabled by one tenth of the Members of Parliament. The opinion given by the committee responsible for respect of the principle of subsidiarity shall be annexed to any such recommendation.

The recommendation shall be submitted to Parliament for a debate and vote. If a recommendation to reject the proposal is adopted by a majority of the votes cast, the President shall declare the procedure closed. Where Parliament does not reject the proposal, the procedure shall continue, taking into account any recommendations approved by Parliament.

6. Where the Committee of the Regions transmits to Parliament an opinion in which it opposes a proposed legislative act on grounds of infringement of the principle of subsidiarity, the opinion shall be referred to the committee responsible and to the committee responsible for respect of the principle of subsidiarity. The latter committee may submit recommendations which shall be put to the vote prior to the conclusion of the first reading.

Justification

Transposes the new procedures for the national Parliaments with regard to the respect for the principle of subsidiarity ('yellow card' procedure and 'orange card' procedure) into the Rules of Procedure.

As pursuant to Article 8 of the Protocol on the application of the principles of subsidiarity and proportionality the Committee of the Regions can bring an action on grounds of infringement of the principle of subsidiarity, Parliament should give particular consideration to any opinion by this Committee which objects a proposed act on these grounds.

OPINION OF THE COMMITTEE ON BUDGETS

for the Committee on Constitutional Affairs on the adaptation of the Rules of Procedure to the Treaty of Lisbon

(2009/2029(REG))

Rapporteur: Catherine Guy-Quint

AMENDMENTS

The Committee on Budgets calls on the Committee on Constitutional Affairs, as the committee responsible, to incorporate the following amendments in its report:

Amendment 1

Parliament's Rules of Procedure Rule 69 b (new)

Present text

Amendment

Rule 69b

1. The following documents shall be made available to Members:

(a) the draft budget presented by the Commission;

(b) a summary by the Council of its deliberations on the draft budget;

(c) the Council's position on the draft budget drawn up pursuant to Article 314(3) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union;

(d) any draft decision on the provisional twelfths pursuant to Article 315 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

2. Those documents shall be referred to the committee responsible. Any committee concerned may deliver an opinion.

3. If other committees wish to deliver opinions, the President shall set the time-limit within which these are to be communicated to the committee responsible.

Justification

This amendment proposes small modifications to the draft report: it deletes the references to the articles of the EAEC Treaty, as they will be repealed under Article 5 of Protocol 2 amending the EAEC Treaty. It also proposes to replace the current expression "printed and distributed" by "be made available to Members", which seems more appropriate in view of the nature and size of some of the documents.

Amendment 2

Parliament's Rules of Procedure Rule 69 e (new)

Present text

Amendment

Rule 69e

Budgetary conciliation

1. The President shall convene the Conciliation Committee in accordance with Article 314(4) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

2. The delegation representing Parliament at meetings of the Conciliation Committee in the budgetary procedure shall consist of a number of members equal to that of the Council delegation.

3. The members of the delegation shall be appointed by the political groups each year prior to Parliament's vote on the Council's position, preferably from amongst the members of the committee responsible for budgetary issues and other committees concerned. The delegation shall be led by the President of Parliament. The President may delegate this office to a Vice-President having experience in budgetary matters or to the chair of the committee responsible for budgetary issues.

4. Rule 64(2), (4), (5), (7) and (8) shall apply.

5. Where agreement on a joint text is reached within the Conciliation Committee, the matter shall be placed on the agenda of a sitting of Parliament to be held within fourteen days from the date of that agreement. The joint text shall be made available to all Members. Rule 65(2) and (3) shall apply.

6. The joint text as a whole shall be subject to a single vote. The vote shall be taken by a roll-call vote. The joint text is deemed to be approved unless it is rejected by the majority of the component Members of the Parliament.

7. If Parliament approves the joint text whilst the Council rejects it, the committee responsible may table all or some of Parliament's amendments to the Council's position for a confirmation in accordance with Article 314(7)(d) of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

The vote on the confirmation shall be placed on the agenda of a sitting of Parliament to be held within fourteen days from the date of the communication by the Council of its rejection of the joint text.

The amendments are deemed to be confirmed if they are approved by the majority of the component Members of the Parliament and three-fifths of the votes cast.

Justification

The reference to a "motion for rejection" of the common text made in the draft report is unnecessary given the fact that there can only be a single vote on the text as a whole. Furthermore, owing to the special majority requested for the rejection of the common text, the consideration of a vote on the text as a whole in parallel with a vote on a possible motion of rejection would be confusing. It is also necessary to consider the need for the EP to react within 14 days to the possible rejection of the joint text by the Council alone and to recall the conditions for amendments to be deemed confirmed.

Amendment 3

Parliament's Rules of Procedure Rule 69 h (new)

Present text

Amendment

Rule 69h

Financial trialogue

The President shall participate in regular meetings between the Presidents of the European Parliament, the Council and the Commission convened, on the initiative of the Commission, under the budgetary procedures referred to in Title II of Part Six of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union. The President shall take all necessary steps to promote consultation and reconciliation of the positions of the institutions in order to facilitate the implementation of the procedures aforementioned.

The President of Parliament may delegate this task to a Vice-President having experience in budgetary matters or to the chair of the committee responsible for budgetary issues.

Justification

The new rule proposed in the draft report shall apply to all procedures on financial matters enumerated in Title II of Part Six of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (expression preferable to "the present Title") and not only to the annual budgetary procedure; as such, this rule should be placed in the final part of the Title and not in the middle of the rules concerning the annual budgetary procedure.
