Paragraph 1 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

1b. Points out that, with the implementation of the Lisbon Treaty, the militarisation of the EU will be significantly and rapidly expedited and stresses that, in general, military interventions, or a military approach to resolving conflicts or allegedly stabilising countries or regions, are the wrong way to achieve greater security for the EU and the world;

Paragraph 1 – introductory part

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

1. Recalls that the European Security Strategy (ESS) and the report on its implementation highlight the key threats and challenges facing the European Union:

1. Recalls that the following alleged ‘key threats’ facing the European Union cannot and must not be addressed in a military way either by the EU or by any other alliance or state; considers that a responsible position for the EU to adopt towards the world would be to redirect the budgets currently earmarked for military expenditure and the EDA towards covering the needs – aggravated by the global economic crisis – of the peoples of the EU, the developing countries and less privileged countries, and by committing itself to nuclear disarmament.
