Possibility for Member States to restrict or prohibit the cultivation of GMOs in their territory
COM(2010)0375 – C7-0178/2010 – 2010/0208(COD)

Proposal for a regulation – amending act

Article 1 – point 1

Directive 2001/18/EC

Article 26 b – paragraph 1 a (new)

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

Member States shall make publicly available any such measure to all operators concerned, including growers, at least twelve months before the start of the growing season. In the event that the GMO concerned is authorised less than twelve months before the start of the growing season, Member States shall make those measures publicly available upon their adoption.

Recital 6

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(6) In this context, it appears appropriate to grant to Member States, in accordance with the principle of subsidiarity, more freedom to decide whether or not they wish to cultivate GMO crops on their territory without changing the system of Union authorisations of GMOs and independently of the measures that Member States are entitled to take by application of Article 26a of Directive 2001/18/EC to avoid the unintended presence of GMOs in other products.

(6) In this context, it appears appropriate to grant to Member States, in accordance with the principle of subsidiarity, more freedom to decide whether or not they wish to cultivate GMO crops on their territory without changing the system of Union authorisations of GMOs. That system of authorisations should remain the primary basis for scientific assessment of health and environmental risks, and work in parallel with the measures that Member States are entitled to take by application of Article 26a of Directive 2001/18/EC, as amended by this Regulation, to avoid the unintended presence of GMOs in other products.

Directive 2001/18/EC

Article 26 b – paragraph 1 – point a

Text proposed by the Commission

Amendment

(a) those measures are based on grounds other than those related to the assessment of the adverse effect on health and environment which might arise from the deliberate release or the placing on the market of GMOs;

(a) those measures are based on

i) scientifically justified grounds relating to local and/or regional environmental impacts which might arise from the deliberate release or the placing on the market of GMOs and which are complementary to the environmental impacts examined during the scientific assessment of the impacts on the environment conducted under Part C of this Directive, or grounds relating to risk management; or

ii) grounds relating to socio-economic impacts which include the impracticability or the high costs of coexistence measures or the impossibility of implementing coexistence measures due to specific geographical conditions and the need to protect local agricultural production.
