Motion for a resolution

Amendment

71a. Asks OLAF to inform Parliament's competent committee of the legal basis that authorises it to assist in and prepare the recording of telephone conversations of private persons without their prior consent and to use the contents for purposes of administrative investigations; reiterates its call on OLAF to provide Parliament – in line with a similar request by the Council – with a legal analysis of the legality of those records in the Member States;

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

73a. Notes that OLAF's Director-General is refusing to step down, despite having lost the confidence of Parliament; recalls the provisions of the Framework Agreement between the European Commission and the European Parliament under which Parliament may request a Commissioner to step down, and deems that procedure also to be applicable in the case of an high-ranking official;
