Report
Marc Tarabella
Progress on equality between women and men in the EU in 2013
2014/2217(INI)

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 45

45. Maintains that women must have control over their sexual and reproductive health and rights, not least by having ready access to contraception and abortion; supports, accordingly, measures and actions to improve women’s access to sexual and reproductive health services and inform them more fully about their rights and the services available; calls on the Member States and the Commission to implement measures and actions to make men aware of their responsibilities for sexual and reproductive matters;

Amendment
45. Maintains, as declared by the European institutions, including the European Commission and the European Council, that the formulation and implementation of policies on sexual and reproductive health and rights is a competence of the Member States and therefore supports measures and actions by the Member States to improve women’s access to health services and inform them more fully about their rights and the services available; supports the Member States in measures and actions to make men aware of their responsibilities for sexual and reproductive matters;
