Amendment 50
Marine Le Pen and others

Report
Bernd Lange
Negotiations for the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership (TTIP)
2014/2228(INI)

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 1 – point (b) – point (xii)

Motion for a resolution

(xii) to ensure that the EU’s acquis on data privacy is not compromised through the liberalisation of data flows, in particular in the area of e-commerce and financial services, while recognizing the relevance of data flows as a backbone of transatlantic trade and the digital economy; to incorporate, as a key point, a comprehensive and unambiguous horizontal self-standing provision, based on Article XIV of the General Agreement on Trade in services (GATS), that fully exempts the existing and future EU legal framework for the protection of personal data from the agreement without any condition that it must be consistent with other parts of the TTIP; to negotiate provisions which touch upon the flow of personal data only if the full application of data protection rules on both sides of the Atlantic is guaranteed and respected to cooperate with the United States in order to encourage third countries to adopt similar high data protection standards around the world;

Amendment

(xii) to ensure that the EU’s acquis on data privacy is not compromised; to maintain high European data protection standards that are independent of third countries’ standards, including US standards;
