Paragraph 2 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

2a. Is seriously concerned about the weak democratic dimension in the new Economic Governance package adopted by the Commission under phase 1, which represents a step backwards as compared with current practice as, in particular, the Council would adopt the euro area recommendation and the conclusions on the Annual Growth Survey (AGS) well before Parliament could adopt its own position on the AGS; reiterates its earlier demands for a proper interinstitutional agreement on European economic governance in order to achieve a real and serious strengthening of EMU parliamentary democracy;
