Paragraph 4

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

4. Takes the view that a permanent, robust and effective Union response in search and rescue operations at sea is crucial to preventing an escalating death toll of migrants attempting to cross the Mediterranean Sea;

4. Takes the view that the open-border policy of the European Union is an incentive, and encourages more migrants to attempt to cross the Mediterranean Sea;

Paragraph 13

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

13. Recalls that the process of relocation – that is to say, transferring an applicant for international protection, or a beneficiary of international protection, from one Member State to another – is a practical example of solidarity within the Union; recalls, in addition, that, since 2009, Parliament has been calling for a binding mechanism for the distribution of asylum seekers among all the Member States;

13. Recalls that in 2015 more than a million migrants crossed into Europe; notes with concern that many more migrants will continue to come to Europe in 2016; encourages Member States therefore to close their own borders;
