Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 39 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

39a. Points out that in the current system beneficiaries of international protection are ‘trapped’ in the Member State where they were granted asylum, irrespective of possible job offers or study prospects in another Member State; calls therefore for mutual recognition of positive asylum decisions by all Member States and for the granting of the right to free movement inside the EU to all beneficiaries of international protection one year after the granting of protection, under the same conditions and limitations as EU citizens;

Paragraph 39 b (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

39b. Calls for Council Directive 2003/109/EC concerning the status of third-country nationals who are long-term residents to be amended accordingly to reduce from five years to one year the period of time that a beneficiary of international protection must spend in the Member State which granted that international protection before benefiting from freedom of movement;

Paragraph 97 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

97a. Regrets the lack of democratic scrutiny in the EU-Turkey agreement reached on 18 March 2016; expresses grave concerns about the risk of serious human rights and international law violations stemming from the agreement to make resettlement conditional upon return and to disregard the non-refoulement principle by returning all asylum seekers and irregular migrants arriving in Greece in the absence of a systematic individual assessment of vulnerabilities and protection needs;
