Discharge 2015: EU general budget - European Parliament

Motion for a resolution
Paragraph 44

44. Re-iterates Parliament’s position concerning the general expenditure allowances (GEA) as expressed in paragraphs 36 to 39 of Parliament’s discharge resolution for 2014; notes that it is already possible for those Members who wish to do so, to claim audit expenses as an eligible cost relating to the GEA; invites the Bureau to examine, whether cost-effective ways can be found for Members to have their expenses audited by Parliament’s administration, instead of having to rely on external auditors;

44. Re-iterates Parliament's position concerning the general expenditure allowances (GEA) as expressed in paragraphs 36 to 39 of Parliament's discharge resolution for 2014; urges the Bureau to give immediate follow-up to the recommendations contained in these paragraphs; believes it should be obligatory for Members to make public their expenditures GEA; asks the Bureau to take immediate action to this effect; notes that it is already possible for those Members who wish to do so, to claim audit expenses as an eligible cost relating to the GEA; invites the Bureau to examine, whether cost-effective ways can be found for Members to have their expenses audited by Parliament's administration, instead of having to rely on external auditors;
