Motion for a resolution

Paragraph 113

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

113. Believes that the next MFF must support the establishment of a European Defence Union; looks forward to the relevant legislative proposals, following the Commission's announcements in this areas, including a dedicated EU defence research programme and an industrial development programme complemented by Member States' investment in collaborative equipment; reaffirms, in this context, its strong conviction that additional political priorities should be coupled with additional financial means; recalls that increased defence cooperation, the pooling of research and equipment and the elimination of duplications will boost the strategic autonomy and competitiveness of Europe's defence industry and lead to considerable efficiency gains, often estimated at around EUR 26 billion per year;

113. Believes that the next MFF must support the establishment of a European Defence Union; looks forward to the relevant legislative proposals, following the Commission's announcements in this areas, including a dedicated EU defence research programme and an industrial development programme complemented by Member States' investment in collaborative equipment; reaffirms, in this context, its strong conviction that additional political priorities should be coupled with additional financial means; recalls that increased defence cooperation, the pooling of research and equipment and the elimination of duplications will boost the strategic autonomy and competitiveness of Europe's defence industry and lead to considerable efficiency gains, often estimated at around EUR 26 billion per year;

113. Rejects the proposal that the next MFF should support the establishment of a European Defence Union; objects to further EU militarisation, the continued setting up of an EU defence research programme and an industrial development programme for defence and armament (EDIDP) and the establishment of an EU military industrial complex; further objects to the merging of internal and external security and the subordination of trade, development and energy policies under the CFSP/CSDP; stresses in this regard the need for the EU to become a strictly civilian actor once again, promoting priorities such as poverty eradication and the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals, the peaceful resolution of conflicts, arms control, the NPT regime and total nuclear disarmament, fair trade and balanced economic relations;

Paragraph 113 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

113a. Deeply deplores the fact that Brexit has served as an occasion for increased and accelerated EU militarisation intended to lead to a Military Union and an EU army; rejects the participation of Member States in European military capabilities and armaments policies, such as permanent structured cooperation (PESCO), which also harms the consensus principle of the CFSP/CSDP; objects to the ongoing strengthening and support of the defence and armament industry; stresses that the setting up of the European Defence Fund, the EU Defence Programme and the EU defence research programme violates the provisions laid down in Article 41(2) TEU, which states that any expenditure arising from actions having military or defence implications must not be charged to the Union budget;
