4. Member States may only impose the following administrative requirements and control measures:

(a) an obligation for the road transport operator established in another Member State to send a posting declaration to the national competent authorities at the latest at the commencement of the posting, in electronic form, in an official language of the host Member State or in English, containing only the following information:

(i) the identity of the road transport operator;

(ii) the contact details of a transport manager or other contact person(s) in the Member State of establishment to liaise with the competent authorities of the host Member State, in which the services are provided and to send out and receive

(i) the identity of the road transport operator and, in the case of a subsidiary, the address of the headquarters;

(ii) the contact details of a transport manager or other contact person(s) in the Member State of establishment to liaise with the competent authorities of the host Member State, in which the services are provided and to send out and receive documents or notices;

(iii) the anticipated number and the identities of posted drivers;

(iv) the anticipated duration, envisaged beginning and end date of the posting;

(v) the number plates of vehicles used in posting;

(vi) the type of transport services, that is to say carriage of goods, carriage of passengers, international carriage, cabotage operation;

The simple declaration referred to in the first subparagraph may cover a maximum period of six months and shall be updated electronically by the road transport operator in line with the current factual situation without undue delay;

4a. Member States may additionally impose the following administrative requirements and control measures:

(a) an obligation for the road transport operator to provide the driver with the following documents, in paper or electronic form, for the purpose of roadside checks:

(i) a copy of the simple declaration referred to in paragraph 4.

(ii) evidence of transport operation taking place in the host Member State as referred to in Article 8 of Regulation (EC) No 1072/2009 of the European Parliament.

(b) an obligation for the driver to keep and make available, where requested at the roadside control, in paper or electronic form, a copy of the posting declaration and evidence of transport operation taking place in the host Member State, such as an electronic consignment note (e-CMR) or evidence referred to in Article 8 of Regulation (EC) No 1072/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council.

(iii) information about the posted driver including the following: the identity, the country of residence, the labour law applicable to the employment contract, the country of payment of social contributions and the social security identifier;

(iv) the envisaged beginning and end date of the posting of each worker, without prejudice to possible prolongation where required by unforeseeable circumstances;

(v) the number plates of vehicles used in posting;

(vi) the type of transport services, that is to say carriage of goods, carriage of passengers, international carriage, cabotage operation.

The simple declaration referred to in the first subparagraph may cover a maximum period of six months and shall be updated electronically by the road transport operator in line with the current factual situation without undue delay;
and of the Council.

(iii) the electronic consignment note (e-CMR)

(iv) a copy of the employment contract in an official language of the host Member State, or in English;

(v) a copy of the payslips for the past two months;

(b) an obligation for the driver to keep and make available, where requested at the roadside control, the tachograph records, and in particular the country codes of Member States where the driver has been present when carrying out international road transport operations or cabotage operations;

(d) an obligation for the driver to keep and make available, where requested at the roadside control, the tachograph records, and in particular the driver card with the recorded border crossings and country codes of Member States where the driver has been present when carrying out international road transport operations or cabotage operations;

(e) an obligation for the driver to make available, where requested at the roadside control, in paper or electronic form, a copy of payslips for last two months; during the roadside check, the driver shall be allowed to contact the head office, the transport manager or any other person or entity which may provide this copy;

(f) an obligation for the road transport operator to deliver, after the period of posting, in paper or electronic form, copies of documents referred to in points (b), (c) and (e), at the request of the authorities of the host Member State within a reasonable period of time;

(c) an obligation for the road transport operator to deliver, after the period of posting, in paper or electronic form, copies of documents referred to in points (a) and (b), including copies of relevant pay slips, at the request of the authorities of the host Member State without undue delay.