A8-0462/2018

Parliament's Rules of Procedure
Rule 32 – paragraph 1 – interpretation

Present text

Parliament need not normally evaluate the political affinity of members of a group. In forming a group together under this Rule, the Members concerned accept by definition that they have political affinity. Only when this is denied by the Members concerned is it necessary for Parliament to evaluate whether the group has been constituted in accordance with the Rules.

Amendment

The Conference of Presidents need not normally re-evaluate the political affinity of members of a group, unless there is manifest evidence that this may not be the case.
