19 a. Notes with concern that the results of the 2017 survey on marginalised Roma in Albania shows their limited access to opportunities in every aspect of human development, such as basic rights, education, health, housing, employment and their living standards;

- condemns the deeply-rooted stigmatisation and social exclusion of Roma arising from anti-Gypsyism and the existing wide gap between marginalised Roma and neighbouring non-Roma relating to their rights and opportunities;

- welcomes the on-going implementation of the 2016-2020 Action Plan for the integration of Roma and Egyptians and calls on the Albanian authorities to reinforce the weak central coordination structure;

- commends the progress achieved since 2011 in the field of education of marginalised Roma, urges that further efforts are needed taking into account the fact that the percentage of completion of compulsory education remains one of the lowest in the Western Balkans region;

- urges Albania to take measures to address discrimination against the Roma at work and improve the employment situation of Roma that has deteriorated since 2011;

- insists that measures be taken to further improve the health, housing and living conditions of Roma and other ethnic minorities;

- calls on Albania for taking an active role
