Paragraph 6 a (new)

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

6a. Regrets that the Commission proposed to the Council a draft on the modification of the negotiating directives to authorise the Commission to negotiate with Canada on investment without waiting for Parliament to adopt its position on the future EU investment policy in general and on investor-to-state arbitration in particular; is opposed to investor-to-state arbitration, as it potentially undermines the position of trade unions in social and industrial disputes; calls on the Commission to make sure that the potential investor-to-state dispute-settlement mechanism would not inhibit future legislation in sensitive policy areas;
