Paragraph 7

Motion for a resolution

Amendment

7. Emphasises, in addition to the Member States' obligations to complete the core network, the responsibility of providing adequate and reliable infrastructure by regular maintenance so as to preserve good navigation status with a view to ensuring the role of inland waterway transport as a reliable and cost-effective mode of transport;

7. Emphasises, in addition to the Member States' obligations to complete the core network, the responsibility of providing adequate and reliable infrastructure by regular maintenance so as to preserve good navigation status, with a view to ensuring the role of inland waterway transport as a reliable and cost-effective mode of transport, while paying particular attention to free-flowing rivers which are close to their natural state and which can therefore be the subject of specific measures;
