MOTION FOR A RESOLUTION

pursuant to Rule 133 of the Rules of Procedure

on recognising and promoting the importance of the role and function of law enforcement agencies

Gianluca Buonanno

Motion for a European Parliament resolution on recognising and promoting the importance of the role and function of law enforcement agencies

The European Parliament,

- having regard to Rule 133 of its Rules of Procedure,
- A. whereas the Member State law enforcement agencies are increasingly in the front line when it comes to guaranteeing the safety of members of the public during sporting events, demonstrations and strikes;
- B. whereas law enforcement agency members are increasingly the targets of outright hostility;
- 1. Calls on the EU institutions to recognise and promote the important and dangerous work carried out daily by law enforcement agencies;
- 2. Calls on the Commission to take steps and prepare projects and programmes to teach schoolchildren about the role and function of law enforcement agencies and about the importance of respecting persons in authority in general and those responsible for maintaining public safety in particular.
