MOTION FOR A RESOLUTION

pursuant to Rule 133 of the Rules of Procedure

on the need to abolish the Dublin Regulation, which is a legal abomination

Gianluca Buonanno

Motion for a European Parliament resolution on the need to abolish the Dublin Regulation, which is a legal abomination

The European Parliament,

- having regard to Rule 133 of its Rules of Procedure,
- A. whereas Germany has unilaterally decided to suspend the Dublin Regulation in relation to Syrian refugees alone;
- B. whereas in so doing it implicitly recognises that the Dublin Regulation is wrong, as it shifts the responsibility for receiving and processing asylum applications on to EU Member States with external borders alone, in particular Italy, which are subject to huge, unmanageable migratory pressure;
- 1. Calls on Parliament, the Commission and the Council to take note of this major new development, which marks the end of that legal abomination known as the Dublin Regulation, which has caused so much harm to Italy.
