MOTION FOR A RESOLUTION

pursuant to Rule 133 of the Rules of Procedure

on the Visegrad Group's rejection of the quota system for the distribution of illegal migrants, with Italy being left alone to handle the emergency

Gianluca Buonanno

Motion for a European Parliament resolution on the Visegrad Group's rejection of the quota system for the distribution of illegal migrants, with Italy being left alone to handle the emergency

The European Parliament,

- having regard to Rule 133 of its Rules of Procedure,
- A. whereas, at their meeting in Prague, the representatives of the Visegrad Group (Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland and Slovakia) reiterated their rejection of the mandatory quota system for the distribution of the illegal migrants who, each day, land on Italian shores in their thousands;
- B. whereas Italy cannot be left alone to deal with this biblical exodus;
- C. whereas the solidarity of other EU partners has proven to be non-existent;
- 1. Calls on the Commission to note the failure of the Dublin Regulation, the disaster caused by the EU's pro-immigration policies and the defeat of its foreign policy;
- 2. Urges the Commission to find an acceptable solution that is different from the shameful buck-passing that is going on at present.
