on the death of little Aylan: shameful exploitation by politicians and the media

Gianluca Buonanno

Motion for a European Parliament resolution on the death of little Aylan: shameful exploitation by politicians and the media

The European Parliament,

- having regard to Rule 133 of its Rules of Procedure,
- A. whereas, as a result of the publication of the photograph of the dead body of little Aylan, found on the beach at Bodrum, many politicians and media organs, both Italian and international, have engaged in unprecedented exploitation, without the slightest shame;
- B. whereas these irresponsible parties are the same ones that, through their disastrous foreign policy decisions, have helped to destabilise such countries as Iraq, Syria and Libya;
 1. Considers it impossible to respond with indifference to those who speculate on the death of innocent people by staging this false and vile display of pity;
 2. Strongly condemns and denounces the attitude thus displayed, which is unworthy of any political representative or organ of the press, as well as being contrary to human dignity and devoid of true compassion.
