pursuant to Rule 133 of the Rules of Procedure on the need for Europe to change its own external policy in favour of the Syrian Government

Gianluca Buonanno

Motion for a European Parliament resolution on the need for Europe to change its external policy and support the Syrian Government

The European Parliament,

- having regard to Rule 133 of its Rules of Procedure,
- A. whereas Russia is no longer alone in backing the Syrian regime, as France has shown de facto support by sending aircraft to bomb ISIS positions in Syria and the US has done the same by using drones to hunt down the jihadists;
- B. whereas these military interventions mark a change of strategy vis-à-vis the Syrian Government of Bashar al-Assad;
- 1. Calls on the Commission and the Council to acknowledge this shift in international relations in the Middle East, which is a highly sensitive region, and to adjust its policy towards the only viable interlocutor in Syria accordingly.
