pursuant to Rule 133 of the Rules of Procedure on the launch of a study by the Commission on the health effects of electromagnetic waves

Gianluca Buonanno

Motion for a European Parliament resolution on the launch of a study by the Commission on the health effects of electromagnetic waves

The European Parliament,

- having regard to Rule 133 of its Rules of Procedure,
- A. whereas it has been reported today that the Court of Toulouse (France) has ordered that an allowance be granted to a 39-year-old woman for hypersensitivity to the magnetic waves emitted by wi-fi devices;
- B. whereas, to date, we still do not know for certain what the possible health effects may be of exposure to electromagnetic waves emitted by mobile phones and other devices;
- 1. Calls on the Commission, given its responsibilities with regard to consumer protection and public health policy, under Article 4(2)(f) and Articles 114, 168 and 169 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (TFEU) and Article 38 of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union, to carry out a study on the possible health effects of such exposure.
