MOTION FOR A RESOLUTION

pursuant to Rule 133 of the Rules of Procedure

on the need to develop large European information networks

Gianluca Buonanno

Motion for a European Parliament resolution on the need to develop large European information networks

The European Parliament,

- having regard to Rule 133 of its Rules of Procedure,
- A. whereas we are living in a global era in which real power, i.e. the power to mobilise and influence the vast majority of users worldwide, in particular young people, is in the hands of large information networks that monopolise and administer the internet;
- B. whereas these multinationals are all American and consequently reflect American social values and ideas;
- 1. Calls on the Commission to take effective measures and deploy the necessary resources to facilitate as far as possible the development of large European information networks capable of competing with the US giants.
