MOTION FOR A RESOLUTION

pursuant to Rule 133 of the Rules of Procedure

on ending the Schengen system

Edouard Ferrand, Matteo Salvini, Mara Bizzotto

Motion for a European Parliament resolution on ending the Schengen system

The European Parliament,

- having regard to Rule 133 of its Rules of Procedure,
- A. whereas, in the wake of the bombings in Brussels on 22 March, Europe can be said to be at the mercy of Islamist terrorism, organised by what is essentially a fifth column within Europe's borders;
- B. whereas the threat of terrorism has grown hugely since the massive influx of refugees to Europe, which include a large number of Jihadists;
- C. whereas the EU is committed, under Article 3(2) of the Treaty on European Union (EU Treaty), to offering its citizens 'an area of freedom, security and justice [...] and the prevention and combating of crime';
- 1. Calls on the Council immediately to cease its policy of accepting refugees indiscriminately;
- 2. Calls on the Council to abolish the Schengen system and ensure the re-establishment of national borders as a result.
