B8-0878/2016

Motion for a European Parliament resolution on shareholder-driven redundancies at IMS Health France

The European Parliament,

- having regard to Rule 133 of its Rules of Procedure,
- A. whereas in 2015 the consultancy firm IMS Health France saw its turnover increase by 11% and raised its CEO's salary by 40%;
- B. whereas, however, its staff have been informed that a redundancy plan is set to axe 310 jobs (20% of total staff) with a view to increasing the company's share price;
- 1. Calls on the Commission to draft a report on how best to help Member States prevent such shareholder-driven redundancies.
