

Question for written answer E-005877/2014
to the Commission
Rule 130
James Carver (EFDD)

Subject: Turkey and support for ISIS

It has been reported that Turkey has assisted ISIS in its extremist war in neighbouring Iraq (see 'Turkish Support for ISIS', Washington Times, 18/6/14). In light of the fact that Turkey is a candidate country, and that ISIS has repeatedly threatened European states, citizens and their interests, what action is the Commission taking to urge the Turkish authorities to cease providing this support?