

Question for written answer E-006184/2014
to the Commission
Rule 130
Javier Couso Permuy (GUE/NGL)

Subject: Claims against Israel

The EU is one of the largest contributors of financial support to the Palestinian National Authority.

Given that Israel is destroying civilian property funded by the EU – ranging from infrastructure to food supplies – has the EU made any claim against the State of Israel for a share of the damages resulting from the destruction of such civilian property?

How many claims has the EU made in recent years, and what recompense has been received?