

Question for written answer E-006354/2014
to the Commission
Rule 130
Nathan Gill (EFDD)

Subject: Sugar and rice and EU-Central African Republic trade

It has been reported that the EU has signed a trade deal with the Central African Republic. However, it appears that rice and sugar, arguably the Central African Republic's most useful and profitable exports, were not included in this deal. Could the Commission please explain why?