

Question for written answer E-007848/2014
to the Commission
Rule 130
Viorica Dăncilă (S&D)

Subject: Operational programmes

During the 2007-2013 financial framework, national eligibility criteria were reviewed on a number of occasions in a bid to simplify them and eliminate unnecessary criteria, so as to avoid any further errors regarding operational programmes. Despite this, the percentage of error has remained the same

Does the Commission intend to launch technical assistance initiatives, concerning the re-examination of reimbursement applications for example, so as to reduce the percentage of error?