

Question for written answer E-007905/2014
to the Commission
Rule 130
Marlene Mizzi (S&D)

Subject: Food crisis in South Sudan

South Sudan is facing the world's worst food crisis, driven by the conflict that erupted in December 2013. Unless there is an end to the fighting, this food crisis will continue. The most recent forecast suggests that the number of severely hungry people will rise by 1 million between January and March 2015.

What is the EU's position on the food crisis in South Sudan?