

Question for written answer E-007935/2014
to the Commission
Rule 130
Hugues Bayet (S&D)

Subject: Climate change financing

On a number of occasions, developing countries have been promised USD 100 billion a year, by 2020, so as to combat climate change.

The funds pledged are not being provided, however.

The Ecofin Council has yet to take a stance on the issue.

1. What is the state of play?
2. What specific anti-global-warming projects will there be for developing countries?