

Question for written answer E-009517/2014
to the Commission
Rule 130
Siôn Simon (S&D)

Subject: Tackling discrimination and inequalities when accessing healthcare

No existing EU law addresses health issues for LGBTI people. The fact that the EU has limited competences in the area of health does not prevent it from taking non-legislative measures to address discrimination in access to healthcare.

Would the Commission consider playing a larger role in helping Member States share good practice and tackle discrimination and inequalities in accessing healthcare?