

Question for written answer E-009751/2014
to the Commission
Rule 130
Jørn Dohrmann (ECR)

Subject: Obstructions of global trade

According to the Commission's annual report on protectionism, published on 17 November 2014, the tendency to impose trade-restricting measures remains strong among the EU's commercial partners. In times of global economic and political instability, protectionist measures could damage global growth.

What measures is the Commission taking to promote trade openness?