Rule 130

Lidia Senra Rodríguez (GUE/NGL)

Subject: CETA agreement and protection of geographical indications

According to the Commission 145 protected geographical indications and designations of origin of different EU countries are protected in Canada by the CETA agreement.

1. Could the Commission explain what this protection consists of in Canada?
2. What do these agreements entail for products protected thereby in the EU?
3. What will happen in Canada and in the EU to those products with protected geographical indications and designations of origin that are not included on the list for protection under this Agreement?
