

Question for written answer E-010055/2014
to the Commission

Rule 130

Viorica Dăncilă (S&D)

Subject: Small farmers and the CAP

Small farmers are increasingly feeling the impact of Community policies, since they are having to meet excessively high costs in order to gain access to European support. This is the situation facing many Member States, particularly in Eastern Europe.

What steps will the Commission take to ensure that the current agricultural policy provides sufficient support for small farmers?
