

Question for written answer E-010568/2014
to the Commission
Rule 130
Siôn Simon (S&D)

Subject: Insurance companies' capital

A recent report by the European Insurance and Occupational Pensions Authority has stated that nearly a quarter of insurance companies would not have enough capital on their books should a period of low yields occur, or a sharp change in interest rates. What plans does the Commission have to regulate this industry to ensure that the system is robust for future economic challenges?