

Question for written answer E-010981/2014
to the Commission
Rule 130
Hugues Bayet (S&D)

Subject: Grant of EUR 688 million to Myanmar

Having lifted trade, economic and individual sanctions on Myanmar in 2013, the Commission is set to announce on 8 December 2014 that the European Union intends to allocate EUR 688 million of financial aid to Myanmar between now and 2020 to help the country through its 'multiple transitions', i.e. its transition to democracy, according to press reports.

1. In what fields will this sum be distributed?
2. How has the Commission satisfied itself that this sum will be managed properly by the competent authorities?
3. Does the Commission intend to put any support measures in place to assist with the management of this sum?