

Question for written answer E-011267/2014
to the Commission

Rule 130

Morten Messerschmidt (ECR)

Subject: False identities and identity papers

As I do not believe the Commission gave any answer at all to the subsidiary question in its response to question E-007531/14, I am repeating the questions, as the Commission should already be aware of the reasons for asking them.

Is there anything in EU law to prevent Member States from deporting EU citizens who are found to have used a false identity or false papers?

Can any social benefits paid be discontinued and offset, if a residence permit turns out to be based on false identity papers?

What action does the Commission propose to take against EU Member States who do not make an effort to prevent the issue of false papers?
