

Question for written answer E-000440/2015
to the Commission
Rule 130
Olga Sehnalová (S&D)

Subject: Follow-up to Written Question E-008641/2014

In its answer to Written Question E-008641/2014 concerning the amendment to the law on electronic communications in the Czech Republic, the Commission refers to its reply to the Written Question P-008232/2014.

This answer states that 'the Commission is aware of the legislative developments in the Czech Republic and has addressed the issue with the Czech authorities with a view to ensuring compliance with the EC law.'

Does the Commission consider the abovementioned provisions of the amendment to the law on electronic communications in the Czech Republic to be contrary to Directive 2002/22/EC?

What concrete measures have the Commission and the relevant Czech authorities already taken or are planning to take to ensure the compliance of the amendment to the law on electronic communications with EU law?